Policy on Minor Academic Adjustments

St. Louis King of France Catholic School strives to provide your child with a quality education. At the same time, St. Louis King of France Catholic School does not offer special education and related services, as defined under federal and Louisiana law. The parents and/or legal guardians of students currently enrolled at St. Louis King of France Catholic School acknowledge that this school does not provide special education, related services, or facilities. Because St. Louis King of France Catholic School does not offer special education and related services, it is not required to make specific accommodations for your child, but only what are called “minor adjustments.” St. Louis King of France Catholic School, its principal, faculty, and staff are only required to make minor adjustments in the education program at St. Louis King of France Catholic School in an attempt to promote the educational development of your child/student, and the nature and extent of such minor adjustments are within the sole discretion of the principal of St. Louis King of France Catholic School. In the event that students need classroom adjustments, and with the school's approval, all adjustments must be agreed upon in writing by the end of September each year, or within 14 days of a meeting of the school's Individual Needs Committee (INC). It is expected that students who benefit from minor adjustments are making a diligent effort to do their best work. This includes completing assignments and homework assignments as directed and with sincere effort. Should the principal of St. Louis King of France Catholic School determine in his/her own discretion that the minor adjustments put in place by the school have not resulted in satisfactory student progress and that it is in the best interest of both the school and the child that he/she be educated in another learning environment, then the principal may ask the parents to withdraw their child/student from St. Louis King of France Catholic School. Alternatively, the principal may disenroll the child/student from St. Louis King of France Catholic School and/or not allow the child to re-enroll for the next school year.
